CHARLOTTE COUNTY, Fla. - Two camp employees weer arrested after one of them is accused of sitting on a teen for hours.

Police arrested Director Arthur Dagg for child neglect and Counselor Carl Hochstettler for child cruelty.

A police report says Hochstettler sat on a 15-year-old boy for three hours to discipline him.

The alleged crime happened at the Gator's Wilderness Boy's Camp in Punta Gorda in August. It's a camp for troubled boys.

Police say the boy's arm was swollen and he started throwing up and that he wasn't taken to the hospital for days.

The two men are out of jail. They're due back in court in October.
