Prison Guard Convicted Of Aiding Racist Inmate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A former prison guard has been convicted on charges of aiding a white supremacist inmate gang that operated at the California Institute for Men in Chino.

Shayne Ziska was found guilty of federal charges of participating in a corrupt organization's conspiracy, violent crime in the aid of racketeering and deprivation of rights under color of law.

A federal prosecutor says Ziska helped the Nazi Low Riders distribute methamphetamine, heroin and other drugs. The judge also found Ziska guilty of allowing a gang member to stab an inmate.

The Nazi Low Riders emerged in the 1970s in the California Youth Authority before spreading throughout the adult system and beyond the prison walls.

Ziska faces up to 50 years in federal prison when he is sentenced May eighth.
